A Message from Mrs. Trousdale

Hello families and scholars,

We are definitely dashing through the year as we continue to fill our days with learning and joy.

Every day we are seeing the seeds of learning taking place. Over break, the seeds in our gardens sprouted. The scholars are so excited to see their rows of vegetables emerge from the soil that they had moved into the garden beds. The magic of nature draws us all closer as we have a shared goal to make sure our gardens thrive so we can harvest and taste the vegetables. Whether they are cooking or gardening, their curiosity is contagious. We are so grateful to have this opportunity for our scholars.

This week we celebrated our first group of scholars at our Eagle Pride Award assemblies. We know how proud the scholars are as they receive the recognition from their teachers. It is always a very special day for us as a school community to hear the accomplishments and see the excitement as the awards are read off. We look forward to the opportunity to highlight more scholars at our next three ceremonies during the year.

We wish everyone JOY during the holiday season. We know that flexibility is always key during this time as schedules at school and home shift with extra activities. It is a time to enjoy family, friends and colleagues. I am grateful to have all of you in my world

With Eagle Pride,

Mrs. Trousdale-Principal
